

Questions

Keith Dixon
January 13, 2019
Gray

Introduction

1. Matthew 16:26
2. Questions abound in the Bible Genesis 3:1, 9, 11; 4:6, 7, 9; 18:14
3. Questions are asked for information sake, to get people to think, to divert attention.
4. Questions are a good way to direct people in study or into a study.
5. There are six questions that we want to consider today

II Discussion

1. What shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Matthew 16:26
 1. Judas sold out for 30 pieces of silver Matthew 26:14-16
 2. Thomas was not with them John 20:14 Why?
 3. Demas loved this present world 2 Timothy 4:10
 4. Do we sell out for a lot less?
2. Who art thou Lord? Acts 9:5
 1. Could Paul have know the Christ? Acts 22:3
 2. Whom did Saul persecute? Acts 9:1
 3. Who is Jesus, Lord? Matthew 1:21, 23; 2:3; Luke 2:49; John 20:30-31
3. What went ye out to see? Matthew 11:9
 1. This is stated of John, but look at the context of the passage.
 2. The contrast between John and Jesus verses 18-19
 3. Two different men and yet the religious people of the day did not accept either of them
 4. What do we want to see?
4. What think ye of Christ Matthew 22:42
 1. There are several questions asked in this chapter verse 15, 1) verse 17; 2) verse 23; 3) verse 35; Then Jesus asked them a question verse 42
 2. Who could have been greater than David? Matthew 1:1
 3. What do we think of Christ?
5. Art thou King of the Jews? Matthew 27:11
 1. Who is a Jew today? Romans 2:28-29
 2. He is the King today 1 Timothy 6:15; Revelation 1:5; 17:14; 19:16
 3. Is he your king?
6. What shall I do then with Jesus? Matthew 27:22
 1. They crucified Him
 2. Pilate washed his hands of him Matthew 27:24; notice what his wife said 27:19
 3. Neutral you cannot be!

III Conclusion

1. Six questions have been asked, what will you give in exchange for your soul? What will you do with Jesus?
2. You will do something with Him, what will it be?
3. Respond to His love, grace and mercy, accept His promises and love for him
4. Come now!