

The Mediator between God and Man

Keith Dixon
October 23, 2022
Gray

Introduction

1. 1 Timothy 2:3-7
2. What is a mediator?
 - a. He is not
 - i. A political figure
 - ii. Some religious leader
 - iii. There One for all, rich, poor, educated, and uneducated.
 - b. What He is “one who stand between”
 - i. He an umpire
 - c. Job plead for a mediator Job 9:33 NKJV
3. Why is Jesus the only mediator that we have?

II Discussion

1. He was with the father in the beginning
 - a. Jesus had glory before the creation John 17:5; 2 Corinthians 8:9; Philippians 2:5-6
 - b. Jesus had as active part in creation John 1:1-3; Colossians 1:16-17
2. He became flesh and lived as a man John 1:1-3, 14
 - a. Jesus had to be made like his brethren Hebrews 2:13-14
 - b. Jesus fully understand humanity
 - i. He was hungry Matthew 4:2
 - ii. He was thirsty John 19:28
 - iii. He was tired Mark 4:37-38
 - iv. He grieved John 11:35
 - v. He suffered Isaiah 53:4-7
3. He went back to heaven
 - a. Jesus ascended back to sit on the right hand of the Father Acts 1:6-11; 1 Peter 3:22
 - b. By doing such, Jesus became the mediator that we need Hebrews 8:6; 9:15; 12:24
 - c. Jesus advocated for us 1 John 1:7; 2:2

III Conclusion

1. There truly is only one mediator between God and men.
2. He is the prefect mediator because He is God, man and understands both.
3. There is no other way to the Father besides Christ John 14:6

Source: Facebook Linda Gayton’s site; Tom Holland 1 Timothy; Logos