

Stay in Your Lane!

Keith Dixon
September 3, 2023
Gray

Introduction

1. Isaiah 55:8; Matthew 7:13-14; Psalm 119:105
2. Definitions:
 - a. Old Testament word – Way, road, distance, journey
 - b. New Testament word - Traveled way; road, traveler's way journey
3. Yet we must be sure of the way Proverbs 14:12; 16:25; Jeremiah 10:23
4. Which lane is the proper lane? TN turn
5. There are information signs if we will but follow them.

II Discussion

1. In the Home there is a lane we are to stay in and must stay in
 - a. They are to leave and cleave Genesis 2:24; Matthew 19:4-6
 - b. The husband is the head Ephesians 5:23 He is to love his wife Ephesians 5:25
 - c. The wife is to submit Ephesians 5:22
 - i. To her own husband – not someone else's- her mother's husband
 - ii. She is to love her husband Titus 2:4
 - d. The why is found in 1 Timothy 2:13-15; 1 Corinthians 11:3
 - e. Children are to obey Ephesians 6:1-3;
 - i. We are to follow God as dear children Ephesians 5:1-2
2. In the church there is a proper lane for us to stay in and must stay in
 - a. 1 Corinthians 12:14-27
 - i. Foot
 - ii. Hand
 - iii. Ear
 - iv. Eyes
 - b. The body must function together Ephesians 4:16
 - c. What can I do, what is my place in the church?
 - i. Cards, calls
 - ii. Invitation
 - iii. Acts 9:36,39
 - d. Elders and Deacons must know their work and do their work Philippians 1:1
 - e. Bible class teachers, workers
3. To go to heaven we must stay in the proper lane
 - a. Do we hate to be lost and the false way Psalm 119:104, 128
 - b. There is a way which seems right but it is not Proverbs 14:12; 16:25
 - c. There is a correct path Matthew 7:13-14
 - d. This pathway has been prepared Isaiah 35:8; 40:3
 - e. This path has been prophesied Luke 24:46-48
 - f. There are no short-cuts; or cut through just one way John 14:6

III Conclusion

1. Which lane are you in? is it the correct lane or do you need to change lanes?
2. There is a proper way to change lanes! Hear, believe, repent, confess, baptized
3. If you have done and have since changed lanes, get back into the correct lane.
4. We must be in the correct lane when we exit this life! There are no lane change after this life!

Sources: Strong's definitions;