

CAN - CAN'T - WON'T

Keith Dixon
January 28, 2024
Gray

INTRODUCTION

1. Matt 7:20
- 2 The Lord gave an invitation to all mankind.
3. There are three kinds of men; those who can come to Christ, those who can't come to Christ and those who won't come to Christ.
4. This is what we want to study today.

II Discussion

A. Those who can't come.

1. There are some people who can't respond to the Lord invitation.
2. They are infants and those who cannot understand the will of the Lord. II

Samuel 12:23

3. Their place is heaven.

B. There are those who can come to the Lord. Matthew 22:2-14

1. They come by doing the will of the Lord. Romans 6:17-18
Hearing Believing repenting and confessing, being baptized.
2. Once here one must make further preparation. Amos 4:12
 - a. This is done by being faithful until death. Revelation 2:10
 - b. This is done by adding the Christian Graces to one's life II Peter 1:5-

7

c. We must bear fruit. John 15:2

3. When this is done we can meet the Lord in the place that He has prepared for all. John 14:1-3
4. But one can fall from the grace of God. II Peter 2:20
Matthew 13:41

C. There are those who won't come at all.

1. There are those who will not obey God. Acts 13:46
2. There are those who have never heard and are lost. II Thessalonians 1:7-9
3. These folks also go to a prepared place called hell. Matthew 25:41
 - a. There is no way out of this place. Luke 16:23,26

III Conclusion

1. Which one of these terms describes you? Can't Can or Won't
2. There is a blessing for those who come.
3. Won't you come now?

Source sermon preached by Roger Jackson while in Hazel Ky, sermon preached 1987