

Prayer

Keith Dixon
March 9, 2025
Gray

Introduction

1. Acts 12:5, 12
2. Prayer is a powerful force that is not used as much as it should. John 14:13-14
3. We must pray correctly. Luke 18:10-14
4. This evening I want us to consider more about prayer

II Discussion

1. Who is to pray
 - a. Those who are willing to come to the throne of Grace. Hebrews 4:16
 - b. Those who are righteous 1 Peter 3:12; John 9:31
 - c. A believer John 14:11-14
2. What are we to pray for?
 - a. Our enemies Matthew 5:44
 - b. God's will to be done. Matthew 6:10; 26:39,42; Mark 14:36; Luke 22:42
 - c. Daily needs Matthew 6:11
 - d. Strength to resist temptations Matthew 6:13; 26:41
 - e. For forgiveness of sins Acts 8:22-24
 - f. Sick James 5:14
 - g. Everything Philippians 4:6
 - h. Individual Luke 22:32; 1 Thessalonians 5:25; 2 Thessalonians 3:1; 1 Timothy 2:1-2
3. When
 - a. Without ceasing 1 Thessalonians 5:17
 - b. When we are on the mountain top Matthew 14:23
 - c. Early in the morning Mark 1:35
 - d. When you enter the closet Matthew 6:6
4. How
 - a. Without vain repetition Matthew 6:7
 - b. Reverently Acts 16:13; 2:42; 1 Timothy 2:8; Matthew 6:5
 - c. In faith nothing wavering. Matthew 21:22; James 1:5-7
 - d. Right motive James 4:3
 - e. With thanksgiving. Philippians 4:6
 - f. In Jesus' name John 14:13-14; Colossians 3:17

Conclusion

1. Can God hear your prayers?
2. Are you a member of His church?
3. If you are wayward then come back to He will hear your prayers.

Source: Ready Reference and Study on Prayer by James Meadows